Programme of the visit was full of interesting meetings, trips and discussions. On Friday morning guests participated in drama performance which was prepared within the framework of the grammar school project titled "Martians do not threaten the Earth". Later they were acquainted with social and educational system of our centre. They took part in lessons and extra classes in the centre and dormitory. They were in the gym, common rooms, computer classroom, library etc. The next point of the programme was the multimedia presentation prepared and presented in English by our students. It was connected with the activities done during the project "European Green Club". Headmaster of the centre - Zdzisław Klusek - introduced Polish educational system to our foreign guests. What is more, he characterised Socio-Therapy Centre for Maladjusted Youths. Antoni Maciejko who is a deputy of Head of an Educational Department in District County in Ostrowiec łw. also participated in the meeting. Mr Maciejko answered guests' questions which were connected with district education, the way of financing and managing it. He was engaged in planting firs in the lawn near the entrance of Socio-Therapy Center for Maladjusted Youths. The foreign delegations presented their achievements in Comenius Project. Then the participants assessed a degree and quality of the activities which were realised within the framework of the project "European Green Club". In the afternoon they also visited the Museum of Archeology and Natural Reserve Silica Krzemionki where they saw the striped flint mine from the Neolithic period and Nature Reserve. When they came back they went for a walk around Ostrowiec łw. They visited Jesus Christ's Church, Katyń Monument, Józef Piłsudski and John Paul II Monuments, the market and Archangel Michael Church. On 28th April (Saturday) the trip to Świętokrzyski National Park was organised. Our foreign guests were amazed by Nature Museum of Świętokrzyski National Park, Holy Cross, a stone run and breathtaking sights of the Świętokrzyskie Mountains. In the afternoon they were taken to Bańtów. They were wandering through the Jewish Ravine. They also visited Modrzewie Nature Reserve. The guests tasted regional cuisine and traditional Polish meals in Czarci Stópka restaurant. A four day visit in Socio-Therapy Center for Maladjusted Youths was finished with the official ceremony of giving certificates to the participants of the meeting by the headmaster Zdzisław Klusek. It became the evidence of ending the next stage of the activities within the framework of Comenius Project "European Green Club". Translated by: Katarzyna Pajęczkowska
